Freedom of Information request: Right to know request

Thank you for your request for information sent via our Digital team for 20 years of Broadcast Bulletins in Excel format.

We received this request on 4 August 2025 and we have considered your request under the Freedom of Information Act 2000 (“the FOI Act”).

Your request

I’m writing to request a copy of the broadcast bulletins from the past 20 years, ideally in Excel format, if available. I am currently conducting a research project at Cardiff University, and this data will form an important part of the analysis.

Our response

We do not hold 20 years of Broadcast Bulletins in excel format. We consider that the Broadcast Bulletins are readily accessible online. Under section 21 of the FOI Act, we are not required to provide information in response to a request if it is already reasonably accessible to you. The information you requested is available from the main Bulletin page, with a separate section for Bulletins pre-January 2020.

If you have any further queries, then please send them to information.requests@ofcom.org.uk – quoting the reference number above in any future communications.

Yours sincerely,

Information Requests

Request an internal review

If you are unhappy with the response you have received to your request for information, or think that your request was refused without a reason valid under the law, you may ask for an internal review. If you do, it will be subject to an independent review within Ofcom. We will either uphold the original decision, or reverse or modify it.

If you would like to ask us to carry out an internal review, you should get in touch within two months of the date of this letter. There is no statutory deadline for us to complete our internal review, and the time it takes will depend on the complexity of the request. But we will try to complete the review within 20 working days (or no more than 40 working days in exceptional cases) and keep you informed of our progress.

Please email the Information Requests team (information.requests@ofcom.org.uk) to request an internal review.

Taking it further

If you are unhappy with the outcome of our internal review, then you have the right to complain to the Information Commissioner’s Office.
