Freedom of Information request: Right to know request

Thank you for your follow-up request for information concerning spend data for transactions over £25,000 from April 2024 to March 2025.

We received this follow-up request on 15 May 2025 and we have considered your request under the Freedom of Information Act 2000 ("the FOI Act").

Your request

Your original request:

I'd like to make a request under the Freedom of Information Act for all of your entity's transactions over £25,000 for January 2016 to March 2025.

Please provide the data in a machine-readable format (preferably CSV). As a minimum, please make sure to include the date, value, and recipient of each transaction. Please also provide details on the procurement category of each transaction if you have it.

This revised request:

please could I request the data for April 2024 to March 2025?

Our response

We have interpreted your request to mean £25,000 excluding V.A.T.

Please find attached, a csv file containing the requested information.

If you have any further queries, then please send them to information.requests@ofcom.org.uk – quoting the reference number above in any future communications.

Yours sincerely,

Request an internal review

If you are unhappy with the response you have received to your request for information, or think that your request was refused without a reason valid under the law, you may ask for an internal review. If you do, it will be subject to an independent review within Ofcom. We will either uphold the original decision, or reverse or modify it.

If you would like to ask us to carry out an internal review, you should get in touch within two months of the date of this letter. There is no statutory deadline for us to complete our internal review, and the time it takes will depend on the complexity of the request. But we will try to complete the review within 20 working days (or no more than 40 working days in exceptional cases) and keep you informed of our progress.

Please email the Information Requests team (information.requests@ofcom.org.uk) to request an internal review.

Taking it further

If you are unhappy with the outcome of our internal review, then you have the right to complain to the Information Commissioner's Office.
