Dear,

Freedom of Information request: Right to know request

Thank you for your request for information concerning mobile coverage data for Southwark.

We received this request on 15 May 2025 and we have considered your request under the Freedom of Information Act 2000.

Your request

Requesting Mobile coverage data 2024 request for Southwark London please.

Our response

Mobile coverage data for Southwark can be found in the data tables produced for Ofcom's Connected Nations reports. Data for 2024 can be found here: Mobile coverage UK Nations 2024 (the local authority .csv file includes data for Southwark). Information about the individual data tables can be found in the associated files on the Coverage and speeds 2024.

Please note that data for previous years (as well as for early 2025) can be found following the links from the top level Connected Nations homepage: Connected Nations and Infrastructure reports.

I hope this information is helpful. If you have any further queries, then please send them to information.requests@ofcom.org.uk – quoting the reference number above in any future communications.

Yours sincerely,

Information Requests

Request an internal review

If you are unhappy with the response you have received to your request for information, or think that your request was refused without a reason valid under the law, you may ask for an internal review. If you do, it will be subject to an independent review within Ofcom. We will either uphold the original decision, or reverse or modify it.

If you would like to ask us to carry out an internal review, you should get in touch within two months of the date of this letter. There is no statutory deadline for us to complete our internal review, and the time it takes will depend on the complexity of the request. But we will try to complete the review within 20 working days (or no more than 40 working days in exceptional cases) and keep you informed of our progress.

Please email the Information Requests team (information.requests@ofcom.org.uk) to request an internal review.

Taking it further

If you are unhappy with the outcome of our internal review, then you have the right to complain to the Information Commissioner's Office.
