Freedom of Information request: Right to know request

Thank you for your request concerning the public interest test relating to the Telegraph Media Group's potential merger.

We received this request on 23 October and we have considered your request under the Freedom of Information Act 2000 ("the FOI Act").

Your request

---

Please provide in full a copy of Ofcom's report on the media public interest considerations related to the proposed takeover of Telegraph Media Group by RedBird IMI.

Our response

We confirm that we do hold this information. There is a statutory duty under section 107(3) of the Enterprise Act 2002 on the Secretary of State to publish any report by Ofcom which she has received under section 44 of that Act. DCMS has confirmed that the Secretary of State will be publishing the information requested in due course. Accordingly, the information requested is therefore exempt under section 22 of the FOI Act on the grounds that it is held by the Secretary of State with a view to its publication, and it is reasonable in all the circumstances to withhold the information until such publication.

Please note that other exemptions may apply.

Yours sincerely,

Information Requests

Request an internal review

If you are unhappy with the response you have received to your request for information, or think that your request was refused without a reason valid under the law, you may ask for an internal review. If you do, it will be subject to an independent review within Ofcom. We will either uphold the original decision, or reverse or modify it.

If you would like to ask us to carry out an internal review, you should get in touch within two months of the date of this letter. There is no statutory deadline for us to complete our internal review, and the time it takes will depend on the complexity of the request. But we will try to complete the review within 20 working days (or no more than 40 working days in exceptional cases) and keep you informed of our progress. Please email the Information Requests team (information.requests@ofcom.org.uk) to request an internal review.

Taking it further

If you are unhappy with the outcome of our internal review, then you have the right to complain to the Information Commissioner's Office.
