Freedom of Information request: Right to know request

Thank you for your request for information about coverage of hunger strikes by prisoners for Palestine.

We received this request on 10 December 2025 and we have considered your request under the Freedom of Information Act 2000 ("the FOI Act").

Your request

I am writing to request information regarding any complaints, correspondence, or internal records held by Ofcom concerning the coverage of hunger strikes by prisoners identified as Palestinian or expressing solidarity with Palestine. Specifically, for the period 10 November 2025 to the present, I would like to request the following:

- 1. The number of complaints received by Ofcom regarding coverage of hunger strikes by prisoners, including those identified as Palestinian or expressing solidarity with Palestine.*
- 2. Any anonymised summaries of complaints, investigations, or correspondence relating to such coverage.*
- 3. Any internal guidance, policy documents, or briefing notes regarding the handling of complaints about coverage of hunger strikes by prisoners.*

We have investigated your request and can confirm we do not hold any information in response to your request.

Yours sincerely,

Information Requests

Request an internal review

If you are unhappy with the response you have received to your request for information, or think that your request was refused without a reason valid under the law, you may ask for an internal review. If you do, it will be subject to an independent review within Ofcom. We will either uphold the original decision, or reverse or modify it.

If you would like to ask us to carry out an internal review, you should get in touch within two months of the date of this letter. There is no statutory deadline for us to complete our internal review, and the time it takes will depend on the complexity of the request. But we will try to complete the review within 20 working days (or no more than 40 working days in exceptional cases) and keep you informed of our progress. Please email the Information Requests team (information.requests@ofcom.org.uk) to request an internal review.

Taking it further

If you are unhappy with the outcome of our internal review, then you have the right to complain to the Information Commissioner's Office.
