Freedom of Information request: Right to know request

Thank you for your request for information concerning commercial broadcaster meetings regarding prominence proposals.

We received this request on the 6 October 2026 and we have considered your request under the Freedom of Information Act 2000 (the 'FOI Act').

Your request & our response

Please provide the number of meetings held between Ofcom and commercial broadcasters with regards to prominence proposals from July 21 2025 to September 30 2026.

In your request, you refer to meetings with commercial broadcasters regarding prominence proposals. We have interpreted this to mean meetings with the commercial public service broadcasters related to the development of our Code of Practice and associated Guidance, which we consulted on in January 2026. Consultation information can be found here.

We can confirm that Ofcom has had 12 meetings with commercial public service broadcasters regarding prominence proposals, in scope of your request, during the dates specified.

Yours sincerely,

Information Requests

Request an internal review
If you are unhappy with the response you have received to your request for information, or think that your request was refused without a reason valid under the law, you may ask for an internal review. If you do, it will be subject to an independent review within Ofcom. We will either uphold the original decision, or reverse or modify it.

If you would like to ask us to carry out an internal review, you should get in touch within two months of the date of this letter. There is no statutory deadline for us to complete our internal review, and the time it takes will depend on the complexity of the request. But we will try to complete the review within 20 working days (or no more than 40 working days in exceptional cases) and keep you informed of our progress. Please email the Information Requests team (information.requests@ofcom.org.uk) to request an internal review.

Taking it further
If you are unhappy with the outcome of our internal review, then you have the right to complain to the Information Commission.
