Dear,

Freedom of Information request: Right to know request

Thank you for your request for information concerning A1 TV.

We received this request on 8 October 2026 and we have considered your request under the Freedom of Information Act 2000 ("the FOI Act").

Your request

"We respectfully request Ofcom to confirm whether there is, or has previously been, an Ofcom-licensed or otherwise authorised television broadcasting service in the United Kingdom operating under the name "A1 TV", or under a substantially similar name or branding.

In particular, we request confirmation of:

- 1. Whether "A1 TV" is or has been an Ofcom-licensed television service in the UK;*
- 2. The official name of the licence holder or service provider;*
- 3. The relevant licence number, type and current status;*
- 4. The name of the company or legal entity holding the licence;*
- 5. Whether the service is currently authorised to broadcast in the UK;*
- 6. Whether any company or entity using the name "A1 TV" appears in Ofcom's broadcasting records;*
and
- 7. Whether the entity represented in Pakistan as a UK television service has any genuine UK broadcasting authorisation or regulatory status."*

Request an internal review

If you are unhappy with the response you have received to your request for information, or think that your request was refused without a reason valid under the law, you may ask for an internal review. If you do, it will be subject to an independent review within Ofcom. We will either uphold the original decision, or reverse or modify it.

If you would like to ask us to carry out an internal review, you should get in touch within two months of the date of this letter. There is no statutory deadline for us to complete our internal review, and the time it takes will depend on the complexity of the request. But we will try to complete the review within 20 working days (or no more than 40 working days in exceptional cases) and keep you informed of our progress.

Please email the Information Requests team (information.requests@ofcom.org.uk) to request an internal review.

Taking it further

If you are unhappy with the outcome of our internal review, then you have the right to complain to the Information Commission Office.
