

If one has only the right ASK for the service it is pointless. One needs the right to be PROVIDED with the service.

Grants should be used to fund provision where the speed is very low, not where it is already rather good.