PART 5

Procedure for bidding in the award

Bids

- 14. A bid is a sum that a bidder is willing to pay for the 1.4 GHz lot, which must be—
- (a) a whole number of thousands of pounds; and
 - (b) at least equal to the reserve price.

Notification of information to bidders

15. Before the award process begins, OFCOM shall notify each bidder of the date on which, and the times on that date within which, bidding in the auction will begin and end.

Bids on the auction system

16.—(1) To bid in the award process a bidder must, via the auction system, specify its bid for the 1.4 GHz lot.

(2) A bidder must specify one single bid.

(3) Except where OFCOM has sent a notification to that bidder under regulation 33 or 37, a bidder must specify a bid within the time period for bidding.

(4) Any bidder which fails to specify a bid within the time period for bidding shall be excluded from the award process and shall not receive a refund of any sums which the bidder has paid as a deposit under these Regulations, which shall (where not already forfeited) be forfeited together with any interest which has accrued on the deposit.

Auction bid form

17.—(1) Before the auction OFCOM shall provide each bidder with an auction bid form.

(2) To bid in the auction, a bidder must specify on the auction bid form its bid in accordance with regulation 16.

Submission of auction bid forms to OFCOM

18.—(1) A bidder must submit a completed auction bid form to OFCOM—

- (b) using the auction system, except as provided for in regulation 33.

(2) The bidder’s completed auction bid form must be received by OFCOM by the time notified to bidders under regulation 15 or 37 as the end of bidding in the auction.

Notification that an auction bid form is not valid

19. Where a bidder submits an auction bid form which is not valid, OFCOM shall, after the end of the auction, notify the bidder of that fact and shall give the reasons why the auction bid form is not valid.

Incomplete or defective auction bid form

20.—(1) Where, due to the manner of completion, an auction bid form is incomplete or defective but OFCOM believes that it can identify the bidder and ascertain the bidder's intention in relation to its bid, OFCOM shall ask the bidder to confirm in a notice to OFCOM by a deadline specified by OFCOM that OFCOM has correctly identified the bidder and ascertained its intention in relation to its bid.

(2) Where the bidder confirms in a notice given to OFCOM by the deadline, which is signed by at least two authorised persons of that bidder, that OFCOM has correctly identified the bidder and ascertained the bidder's intention, the bid in its entirety shall be accepted by OFCOM on that basis.

(3) Where the bidder does not give such confirmation, the bid in its entirety shall be invalid and rejected by OFCOM.

Required deposit

21.—(1) For the purposes of the award process, the bidder shall be required to pay a further sum in pounds into OFCOM's bank account, with accompanying information which identifies the bidder, by a deadline specified by OFCOM (the "required deposit").

Valid bids

22.—(1) A bid is valid if—

- (a) it is specified on a valid auction bid form in accordance with regulation 17 which has not been rejected by OFCOM; and
- (b) the bidder has paid the required deposit in accordance with regulation 21.

(2) Any bidder to whom a notice was given under regulation 15 who does not submit a valid bid shall be excluded from the award process and shall not receive a refund of its initial deposit, or its required deposit where a required deposit has been paid, which shall (where not already forfeited under regulation 31) be forfeited.

Determination of the winning bid

23.—(1) OFCOM shall determine the winning bid following the passing of the deadline for paying the required deposit under regulation 21.

(2) The winning bid shall be the highest valid bid, except where paragraph (3) applies.

(3) Where there is more than one valid bid of equal highest value, OFCOM shall use a method of random selection from amongst these valid bids to determine the winning bid.

Determination of the total price to be paid by the winning bidder

24.—(1) OFCOM shall determine the amount payable by the winning bidder for a licence ("total price"). The total price shall be an amount in whole pounds, calculated in accordance with paragraph (2).

(2) The total price shall be—

- (a) where only one valid bid has the highest value, a sum equal to the higher of:
 - (i) the next highest value bid; or
 - (ii) the reserve price.
- (b) Where two or more valid bids are of equal highest value, the total price shall be a sum equal to that highest value.

Notification of the total price payable by the winning bidder to OFCOM
