

Question	Your response
Question 1: Do you have any comments on Ofcom’s proposed changes to the ‘third party content services’ licence condition to set out that a warning does not need to be displayed if the third party television service being accessed holds an Ofcom issued broadcast licence?	Confidential? – N Everyone TV agrees with Ofcom’s proposals. As the operator of three of the television platforms where affected channels appear (Freeview, Freeview Play and Freely), we believe that Ofcom’s proposals will help viewers to make an informed choice in their consumption of content, and reduce confusion.
Question 2: Do you have any comments on Ofcom’s proposed changes to add conditions 22A and 22B to all DTAS licences?	Confidential? – N Everyone TV agrees with Ofcom’s proposals. We hold a DTAS licence for the provision of an EPG, and conditions 22A and 22B already apply to our licence. We believe that a consistent approach for DTAS licensees will help to protect viewers from harmful content.
Question 3: Do you have any comments on Ofcom’s proposed changes to the ‘force majeure’ licence condition?	Confidential? – N Everyone TV has no objection to Ofcom’s proposal.