Question 1: Do you have any comments on Ofcom's proposals to make more frequencies available for restricted services?	Is this response confidential? – / N (delete as appropriate) We feel this is an excellent move.
Question 2: Do you have any comments on Ofcom's proposed restricted service standard form Broadcasting Act licence?	Is this response confidential? – N (delete as appropriate) None all looks fine
Question 3: Do you have any comments on Ofcom's proposal to issue existing extended duration SRSL licensees with a restricted service licence on a new frequency at the end of their existing licence term, should they apply for a new licence?	Is this response confidential? – N (delete as appropriate) We think that these services should be offered help with the costs of changing frequencies
Question 4: Do you have any comments on Ofcom's proposal to issue existing LRSL licensees with limited coverage frequencies (if available) at the end of their existing licence term, should they apply to renew their licence?	Is this response confidential? – N (delete as appropriate) None at all.
Question 5: Do you have any comments on these changes to our application process, as set out in the revised guidance at Annex 4?	Is this response confidential? – N (delete as appropriate) We have always felt the application process could be made easier and fees could be reduced to enable wider access to the RSL network.
Question 6: Do you have any comments on Ofcom's proposal to invite the Secretary of State for DCMS to consider making an order	Is this response confidential? – N (delete as appropriate)

which would provide an exception for certain services from the need to hold a Broadcasting Act licence?

We think that anything that reduces the extremely high costs of licencing an RSL would be of great advantage to encourage more people to use the medium.

Question 7: Do you have any comments on Ofcom's proposed fees for restricted services?
