

a definite YES.

I think Chorley FM should be permitted to make its proposed changes as it would be more productive and basic common sense to reach a wider audience.