

Yes it is a voluntary station and it's output should serve the entire community of Chorley