

YES!

Absolutely. Chorley FM is an asset to the community and also the wider area. A local community radio station ought to be allowed to produce content that supports the needs of the local community as a whole.

Thanks.