Question 1: Should Nation Radio Ltd be permitted to make its proposed changes to the Format of Nation Radio, with particular regard to the statutory criteria set out in Section 2 of this consultation document? (Section 106 (1A) of the 1990 Broadcasting Act, as amended, relating to Format changes).:

I definitely don't think nation radio should be permitted to make any proposed changes, to alter the character of the service.

Nation has always worked the way it has and to want to alter it seems pointless and sounds to me like its a way of morphing it into the likes of capital or real radio, we have enough of those stations playing so called rock songs and Nation should remain as it is.

They have altered it too much already with the addition of the classic tracks.

Nation appeals to a niche market of 15-34 yr olds which include students and there are no other stations like it in the area catering for that niche. so my response is clear in the fact that I think Nation should remain in the format that it is already.
