Yes

Additional comments:

I am in support of the advice to Ofcom provided by the Ofcom Advisory Service for Wales.

Question 1: Do you agree with Ofcom's proposal to make changes to the geographical areas of the Wales and West of England licence, to separate the constituent regions resulting in a single licence for Wales, and a larger West and South-West of England licence ?:

Yes. A separate Channel 3 licence is need for Wales, to reflect the needs of the country and its own devolved democracy in the National Assembly for Wales.

It is appropriate for current requirements for new and non-news programmes broadcast to continue but this is a minimum to support civic engagement with the National Assembly and would welcome this being increased.
