

As a supplier of wifi to visitors to our digital arts venue in Brighton, I am very concerned by the loose framing of the code. It would be a needless loss if our ability to provide wifi is curtailed by concerns over our liability under the Digital Economy Act.