

I do not want to see WiFi provision to be dropped by such parties as libraries, cafés or others operating in public places due to this indulgence of the copyright lobby blaming public carriers for individual's alleged transgressions.