

Please scrap the proposed fee (currently £20 I believe) for victims to gain access to justice.

Any such fee will lock-out people and families in poverty, even when they're wrongly accused.

Access to justice MUST remain free to applicants and appellants.

END