

As a frequent user of public wifi, I am concerned that businesses will withdraw the service rather than deal with the consequences of the act. I therefore urge you to provide an exception for these businesses.