

The Digital Economy Act will suffocate Wifi provision in this country, hugely impacting the economy. It will mean individuals are targeted unfairly, and therefore reduce public Wifi provision. This sort of legislation puts at risk out economics growth and disadvantages us compared with other countries.