

The mobile carriers will move hell and earth to make it impossible to make 0800 free of charge because they will see the distinct probability of using free 0800 numbers to break out from the mobile network. This will lose them millions on international calls. We will see where the power lies.

Good luck non the less

JIM Povey