Dear Lara

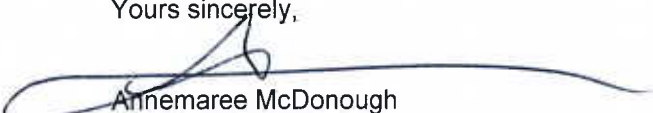

LLCC PPC Points of Handover Pricing Review

Virgin Media is pleased to respond to Ofcom's consultation on the charges for PPC points of handover.

Virgin Media is supportive of Ofcom's cost recovery approach being based on LRIC and is also supportive of Ofcom's plans for transitioning to the new additional POH charges.

If you have any questions about our response please do not hesitate to contact me.

Yours sincerely,

Annemaree McDonough
