

Question 1: Which of the three options do consultees favour, and why?:

Option 2. A.D. makes an enormous difference to my ability to enjoy TV and to share the learning and enjoyment gained with friends and family. I do not watch soap operas but really look forward to documentaries, dramas and films, most of which do not have A.D.

Question 2: Do consultees have any further suggestions for future access service provision? If so please provide the rationale for these suggestions:

Ultimate aims should include the audio-description of live events, e.g. Strictly Come Dancing. It is very socially excluding not to be able to take part in the anticipation and evaluation of such programmes in social conversations.

Comments:

As a Registered Blind person, I pay 50% of the licence fee. In my view, I should be able to enjoy 50% of the programmes. How long will it be before this happens?
