

Dear Sir/ Madam,

In response to your consultation, I support the RNIB's audio description campaign and believe that the statutory audio description target should be doubled to 20 per cent of programming as this would provide a better balance and choice for blind and partially sighted people. I therefore support option 2.