

Question 1: Which of the three options do consultees favour, and why?:

Increase to 20 per cent across all channels. It is hugely unfair to limit blind and partially sighted people to a 5th of programmes on just few channels audio description when sighted people can have access to hundreds of channels and programmes. TV is not just entertainment to some people, it is a source of companionship when they struggle to leave the home. If the expertise and technology is already developed it's potential should be maximised not minimised.

Question 2: Do consultees have any further suggestions for future access service provision? If so please provide the rationale for these suggestions:
