

I would like to support Option 2 of the consultation document on audio description. I would like, as a totally blind person, to see 20 percent of television programs Audio-described.

Without Audio Description, television films and plays and documentaries are impossible to follow because technology has made the TV screen so visual that Audio Description is essential.

Thank you for reading this.

Yours sincerely,