

Question 1: Which of the three options do consultees favour, and why?:

Option 2. I believe all people should be empowered to obtain maximum benefit from services which most take for granted.

Question 2: Do consultees have any further suggestions for future access service provision? If so please provide the rationale for these suggestions:

Comments:

I've spent most of my life as a blind person, making little or no sense of some programmes which others find informative and/or exciting. In recent years, this situation has been improved somewhat by the introduction of audio description. I suppose that, its absence on the majority of programmes is even more keenly felt than previously. This provision should also be extended to voice-over of foreign language sections of programmes, something of which coverage still seems sadly lacking.
