

As a marine radio officer for fifteen years and a maritime communications lecturer for a further thirty I believe the proposed increase in charges on SOLAS frequencies to be nothing short of criminal. This proposal is a tax on human lives. Abandon it now.