

3i) Do you agree with Ofcom's assessment that television continues to have an essential role in delivering the purposes of public service broadcasting?:

3ii) Do you agree that UK-originated output is fundamental to the delivery of public service broadcasting purposes?:

4i) Do you agree with Ofcom's conclusions about the way that other digital channels and interactive media contribute towards the public purposes?:

5i) Do you agree with Ofcom's assessment of the implications of different economic scenarios for the UK TV market for the future prospects for delivery of the public purposes?:

5ii) Do you agree with Ofcom's analysis of the costs and benefits of PSB status?:

6i) Do you agree with Ofcom's vision for public service content?:

6ii) How important are plurality and competition for quality in delivering the purposes of public service broadcasting, and in what areas?:

6iii) In maximising reach and impact of public service content in the future, what roles can different platforms and services play?:

6iv) Do you agree that the existing model for delivering public service broadcasting will not be sufficient to meet changing needs in future?:

7i) What are your views of the high-level options for funding public service broadcasting in future?:

7ii) Are the proposed tests of effectiveness for future models for public service broadcasting the right ones?:

7iii) Of the four possible models for long term delivery of public service content, which, if any, do you consider the most appropriate and why? Are there any alternative models, or combination of models that could be more appropriate, and why?:

8i) What do you think is the appropriate public service role for Channel 4 in the short, medium and long term? What do you think of Channel 4's proposed vision?:

8ii) Which of the options set out for the commercial PSBs do you favour?:

9i) To what extent do you agree with Ofcom's assessment of the likely future long term issues as they apply to the nations, regions and localities of the UK?:

i think more could be done for programming for the particular region this has gone down in the past few years

I think the main station is itv. I live in the Anglia Region but can pick up broadcasts from Carlton /LWT.

I think there has to be a more regional programmes for all regions and also a return to the 1989 indent for itv which was better than today's (one for itv and only regional indents before regional shows)

Jobs are going because of a lack in regional itv.

Sub regions are a waste of money and regions should not be merged

9ii) Which model(s) do you think will be most appropriate in each of the nations and in the English regions in the long term, and why?:

i think no sub- regional news and more region programming

Why because regional programming is high on the list of what people want 9iii) What are your views on short/medium-term issues referred to, including the out-of-London network production quotas?:

i think there should be itv programmes made anywhere in the country

I think there should be also programs that regions show to regions not 1 hour a week more like a dozen or more. People want more programmes which affect their region not just national programs

There is no itv indent before regional programs so regional companies should use their own

Also i think itv should do something to celebrate big birthdays of the regions just as it celebrated its 50th birthday. LWT is 40 this year and Anglia is 50 next year

9iv) What are your initial views on the preliminary options set out relating to ITV plc's regional news proposal? (Please note that Ofcom will put forward firm options on these issues, and consult also on ITV plc's regional news proposal, in phase 2 of this Review.):

i think that merging news companies in a way is wrong.

I think regions should stay but sub news should go

When regional itv show more local programs then to their region and indent is given back to them then they should merge but only after the public of the region has a say and if it is a neighbouring region

Only exception will be london which should always as it is different to all other regions as it has a weekday and weekend licence

10i) Do you agree with our assessment of the possible short term options available relating to children's programming:

11i) Do you agree that new legislation will need to be in place by 2011 in order to ensure continued delivery of the public purposes in the medium and long term?:

i think if thames never loss in 1993 itv would have more money

Comments: