

Response to additional charges for paying by cheque

I am spitting mad that extra charges are levied because people do not pay their bills, this is my preferred method, I have a bank account and have always paid my bill, sometimes a little late, my credit history is absolutely sound, and to charge me extra, just wants me to dispenze with BT's services altogether. I don't have them for anything but my landline.

Edith Corcoran