Question 1: Do you agree that the case for making changes requested by UK Broadband to its licence has been made? If not, why would it not be appropriate to vary UK Broadband's Wireless Telegraphy Public Fixed Wireless Access Operator Licence by (i) allowing application neutrality and (ii) increasing the permitted maximum in-band EIRP, and why would it not be appropriate to vary the licence as soon as practicable?:

The 3400-3600 MHz frequency range is an important band for the WiMAX Forum which is already certifying fixed and nomadic wireless access equipment and will be certificating mobile WiMAX products in this frequency range. Therefore the WiMAX Forum supports the proposal for licence variation and believes the case has been made to allow application neutrality within the 3.5 GHz band in the UK. The WiMAX Forum agrees this should happen as soon as practicable.
