

Name: Duncan Perrett

Representing: Self

What are your comments on these proposals?:

I hope Ofcom won't switch off FM too soon. Some quite new, developing technologies rely on FM broadcasts. For example, the fledgling RDS-TMC beginning to appear in the latest sat nav systems. Traffic avoidance would be the main benefit for me if I were to buy a sat nav system. If I bought one today (quite a considerable investment) the traffic module could become obsolete within 5 years!