

Question 1: Do you agree with Ofcom's proposal to exempt users of Citizen's Band (CB) radio (and other related applications such as Community Audio Distribution) from the need to possess a Wireless Telegraphy Licence.: No. Part of my reasoning for saying "No" is there is not enough control over Citizen Band Radio now and removing any license conditions would only result in this situation becoming worse. I would, rather agree that Citizen Band needs a full license as per Amatuer radio.

Question 2: Do you agree with Ofcom's proposals to permit the use of 'Micro' FM transmitters in the UK, and to authorise that use by licence exemption.: No. For very much the same reasons as above.

Question 3: Do you agree with Ofcom's proposals to exempt users of High Density Fixed Satellite Services (HDFSS) terminals from the need to possess a Wireless Telegraphy Licence.: No because this would make the problem have the ability to explode into other areas far exceeding the 3-5 mile range Citizen Band has now. This proposal could become a major problem to other licensed users and services.

Question 8: Do you agree with Ofcom's proposals to exempt users Digital PMR 446 from the need to possess a Wireless telegraphy Licence.: Yes. My reasoning is PMR's are in such a short range frequency that, other than a slight interference to Amatuer radio PMR's do not hinder any other licensed users

Question 9: Ofcom would welcome comments on it proposals to implements these changes concerning short range devices.:
